A Giving Tuesday #petalsforlyndsay

3rd grade student, Liam Carr has a very generous and giving spirit that he is putting to work making handmade projects for a very special friend and role model, Lyndsay Biehl, the owner and farmer of Wildroot Flower Co. Lyndsay was recently diagnosed with breast cancer and is undergoing treatment currently. Liam's mom, Jenna Carr knew that they had a special way that they could support Lyndsay through this journey and began a gofund me link to support Lyndsay and Liam began making handmade artwork with dried rough-cut timber from the Carr's property utilizing sticks and pinecones. The tag #petalsforlyndsay was also created. Between the gofund me account and the donation only sale of Liam's creations, over $10,780 has been generated. This is the true meaning of "giving" and a kind commitment of service for others.

Liam will be at the Wildroot Christmas open house this weekend, December 2nd from 10:00 AM – 4 PM (315 Forshey Road) with his beautiful artwork. He has been working hard on his creations and would love to share his talents with you. Please contact Jenna at 740-538-7685.
